(St. Louis, Mo) Ed Martin will announce whether he will run for Congress in Missouri's 3rd District during a rally scheduled for Wednesday, Sept. 30, from 6 to 8 p.m. at McArthur's Bakery in south St. Louis County. The rally, which will take place in the bakery's rear parking lot at 3055 Lemay Ferry Rd., will be hosted by Dave and Randy McArthur. Dr. Bruce McCoy, President of the Missouri Baptist Convention and a local pastor, will lead the invocation. Boy Scout Troop #721 will present the Colors and lead the Pledge of Allegiance.

Martin formed an exploratory committee in July after people across the district asked him to run against Congressman Russ Carnahan (D), who is expected to seek a fourth term in November, 2010. Dave McArthur was one of the first to approach Martin after Carnahan voted for the controversial "Cap-and-Trade" national energy tax, which McArthur has publicly stated would force him and other businesses to go out of business.

Prior to the rally, Martin will visit with voters in Jefferson County. Missouri's 3rd Congressional District encompasses south St. Louis, parts of west and south St. Louis County, and all of Jefferson and Ste. Genevieve counties.
